

Time For Art Sponsorship Packet

COR Mission

Columbia Opportunity Resource connects talented professionals in the greater Columbia area through leadership development, community service and social enrichment opportunities. Simply put, we are here to Lead, Serve & Connect the Midlands.

Time For Art

Connecting the arts, business & nonprofit communities of the Midlands.

Time For Art connects the arts, business and nonprofit communities throughout the Midlands for an evening to network and celebrate each other. The event features a unique silent auction which allows COR members and other business professionals to bid on artwork with volunteer hours instead of money. Attendees are also exposed to selected local nonprofit agencies with consistent volunteer opportunities that winning bidders may serve to complete their committed hours. The goal being to 1) increase awareness of and networking opportunities for the local arts community to interact with the business community, 2) increase awareness of and networking opportunities for the local nonprofit community to interact with the business community and, 3) generate more than 2,500 committed service hours – the financial equivalent of $57,675 back into the Midlands.
